APPOINTMENTS

PUBLIC INQUIRIES ACT

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to appoint the following persons—namely, Mr. Justice Robert Alexander Burnie Wootton, Dr. Peter Alfred Lusztig, and Charles Edward Stuart Walls—Commissioners to make inquiry into and concerning monetary losses and expense resulting from motor-vehicle accidents involving persons adverse in interest and into feasible and sound proposals for moderation thereof, and in so doing to inquire particularly into

- the costs and delay involved in the determination and recovery of compensation by victims of motor-vehicle accidents;
- the portion of total damages that are recovered by victims of motor-vehicle accidents by Court proceedings and by settlement, and whether adequate compensation is obtainable by such victims under present procedures;

- the cost to insurers, to persons who pay insurance premiums, and to the public generally of providing present forms of automobile insurance determined on the basis of past and current experience, and whether the cost is in proper relationship to the effective protection obtained;
- the operation of the arrangements with Traffic Victims Indemnity Fund;
- the changes in the need for insurance resulting from the availability of hospital insurance, prepaid medical services plans, and compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act;
- the justification for recent variations in automobile insurance premium rates;
- whether the public of this Province will be better served by the continuation of present procedures for the recovery of damages arising out of motor-vehicle accidents and by the preservation of present forms of insurance coverage or by some variation or variations thereof, or by a plan whereby compensation for damage arising from motor-vehicle accidents may be paid without determination and attribution of responsibility therefor, or by a combination thereof;
- whether such a variation or a plan for compensation or such a combination, if recommended, should be administered privately or by or through a Governmental department or a Governmental agency, or a combination thereof; and
- the method and procedures that would be most effective in the introduction of change if recommended.

Notice of the time and place of holding the first meeting will be published in due course. fe3—5552

PRIVATE BILLSNOTICE

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, at the next Session, for an Act to amend the Vancouver Charter to provide for the following matters:—

1. To amend Part XXI of the said Act to provide a summary procedure for the hearing of disciplinary charges in cases where, in the opinion of the Chief Constable, the offence is such as can be dealt with by a warning, reprimand, or suspension without pay for not in excess of three working-days.

2. To amend Part XXI of the said Act to provide for a more formal hearing in cases where the summary procedure is not followed.

3. To amend Part XXI of the said Act to ensure the availability of a transcript of the evidence and proceedings at a hearing to any member of the police force who is found to have committed an offence against discipline.

4. To amend Part XXI of the said Act to provide for an appeal to the Board of Police Commissioners by any member of the police force who has been found by an adjudicating officer to have committed an offence against discipline, except in cases where the summary procedure has been followed or in a case where a member has been dismissed or demoted.

5. To amend Part XXI of the said Act to provide for an appeal in cases where a member of the police force is dismissed or demoted, such appeal and all other appeals from disciplinary proceedings to be by way of a hearing de novo, to which the rules of evidence governing trials under the Criminal Code shall apply.

6. To amend Part XXI of the said Act to provide that in all appeals under Part XXI of the Act the appellant may appear in person or by counsel or agent.

7. To amend section 2 of the Act by adding the following:—

“‘adjudicating officer’ means the Chief Constable or any person to whom the Chief Constable has delegated disciplinary powers pursuant to section 460 and before whom any hearing in respect of offences against discipline takes place.”

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

PRIVATE BILLS

Excerpt from Standing Orders Relating to Private Bills

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5, 1949.

E. K. DeBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
